ICON Radiation Therapy Competition

Dear Dr/ Sir/ Madam,

At each ICON Conference several competitive events are held to showcase and reward the best work in the field of oncology.

This refers ONLY to ICONs new initiative specifically for young radiation oncologists and MD Radiotherapy PG students (please visit www.oncologyindia.org or email iconconferences@gmail.com for the full list of ICON Conference related information).

Welcome to the

This is being coordinated by Dr JP Agarwal, Dr Monica Malik Irukulla and Dr Nindra Armugam.

Anyone who is registered and studying for MD/DNB in Radio Therapy or has completed MD/DNB in Radio Therapy within the last five years can apply to take part. They should also be citizens of India and they must be currently working/ located in India. Being a member of ICON is also required. Membership application can accompany the competition application.

The project is to optimally utilize the waiting of patients while they are waiting for their RT session to commence – for the purpose of patient education. The project material can include one or more of the following:

1. Printed handouts
2. PPT slides
3. Videos
4. Standees
5. Display items
6. Details of additional resources
7. FAQs
8. In case of further questions, whom/ how to contact

The application must include a structured executive summary using the same headings (as above).

Scoring of eligible applicants and their submissions will be done by independent panel of senior radiation oncologists and shall give equal weightage to each of the about eight points.

Only those project reports/ competition applications that meet minimum criteria (based on panel of independent senior radiation oncologists) will be shortlisted and qualify for presentation during the competition session – which is scheduled on Friday 13th March 2020 from 12 noon onwards at Hyderabad.

There will be three prizes (and certificates): First prize will be Rs 15,000/-, Second prize will be Rs 10,000/- and Third prize will be Rs 5,000/-.
